Re: United States v. Cynthia Barimah
Case No: 19 CR 00924

Dear Judge Koetl:

Attached is a letter that the Defendant received from the Department of Homeland Security, requiring Ms. Barimah to appear on June 22, 2021 to "collect biometrics" and, for that purpose, requiring her to bring photo identification.

The Defendant's only photo identification is her passport which is presently in the possession of Pre-Trial and/or the Department of Probation.

We request that you issue an order allowing the agency that possesses her passport to release it to her or one of her daughters on June 21, 2021 for that appointment with the proviso that she or someone on her behalf return the passport on June 23, 2021.

Thank you.
